
INFORMATION IN THE MODERN WORLD

MASS MEDIA

-
- Newspapers
 - Magazines
 - TV Radio
 - Internet
 - Mass Media

Sources of Information

- Sources of information
 - Mass media
 - Newspapers, Magazines
 - Television, Videos
 - Radio
 - Internet
 - Books
 - Dictionaries
 - Encyclopedias
 - Reference books
 - School textbooks
 - People
 - Parents
 - Friends
 - Teachers

PRESS IN BRITAIN

Last updated 1 minute ago | Thursday 02 December 2010 Log in | Register

The Telegraph

HOME NEWS SPORT FINANCE LIFESTYLE COMMENT TRAVEL CULTURE TECHNOLOGY FASHION Jobs Dating Offers

Hot Topics World Cup 2018 Decision: Live Weather Forecast MPs' Expenses WikiLeaks The Ashes Start-Up 100 Christmas

England lose out to Russia in World Cup 2018 race

Russia wins World Cup bid as English contingent headed by David Cameron and Prince William defeated.

COMMENT AND BLOGS

- Henry Winter: England's World Cup defeat shows FA lacks leadership
- Steve Wilson: Eddie Afekafe was England's man of the match
- Paul Kelso: Fate of England World Cup bid in hands of select few

MORE ON WORLD CUP 2018

England's 2018 bid: review
England's presentation featured a mulleted David Beckham but no mention of Milton Keynes.

Blatter hails 'remarkable' England
What defeat means to clubs
Who is Eddie Afekafe?

GALLERY: DECISION TIME
Decision time in Zurich

VIDEO: THE ENGLAND BID'S PRESENTATION
World Cup 2018: England's bid

中国邮政
CHINA POST
悦城邮政支局
营业时间: 8:00-17:30
本区邮编: 526635

GETTY IMAGES

PRESS IN BRITAIN

THE TIMES

News | Opinion | Business | Money | Sport | Life | Arts | Puzzles | Papers

US manoeuvres to force Mubarak exit

Giles Whittell, James Hider

38 minutes ago

White House officials were in talks with Hosni Mubarak's inner circle overnight on a plan for him to resign at once in a bid to end the violence in Cairo. The talks came as demonstrators planned to give Egypt's President a fresh ultimatum, converging on the streets today for a "Friday of"

Interactive graphic
Video: Hider attacked
Evacuated Britons return
Bloody but unbowed
Witness: being rescued

BBC apologises over Mexico insults Top Gear remarks caused outrage in Mexico after the presenters characterised Mexicans as lazy and feckless.

'Forced marriage' mother faces jail Nigerian politician's family must return teen to Britain or mother will be sent to prison

Peer's son defrauded Tesco of £200,000 Alexander Trenchard stole from his employer to cover losses from a music festival

Rumsfeld admits errors over Iraq The man who planned the invasion of

PROBLEM: IS IT REAL TO FIND CERTAIN INFORMATION IN BRITISH PRESS?

What should we do?

FIND INFORMATION

- headline
- condensed
- celebrity
- crime
- to focus
- intriguing
- weather forecast
- financial
- tabloid
- broadsheet

FINDING INFORMATION

1. Skim the text and find the name two main kinds of the newspapers in Britain.
2. Scan the text and answer the teacher's questions.

CHOOSING INFORMATION

- Find the best Russian equivalents:

Tabloid

- а) таблоид;
- б) жёлтая пресса;
- с) лёгкое чтение.

Broadsheet

- а) независимая газета;
- б) серьёзная газета;
- с) широкоформатная газета

WHICH OF THIS NEWSPAPERS ARE TABLOIDS OR BROADSHEETS ?

BROADSHEETS

- The Independent
- The Times
- The Guardian

TABLOIDS

- The Sun
- The Daily Express
- The Daily Mirror
- The Daily Mail
- The Metro

MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THE RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS:

- intriguing headlines
- a weather forecast
- crossword puzzles
- celebrity gossip
- an article about politics

Test

yourself:

Broadsheets

1.They are heavier.

2.Their information is always very reliable.

3.Business people start their days with them.

4.They always separate facts and comments.

5.They sometimes write about small unimportant but interesting events.

6.They publish the opinions of the best experts from all over the world/

7.One of their main topics is politics.

8.They never publish gossip.

Tabloids

1.You can find jokes and crossword puzzles there.

2.Sometimes they don't check their information and get in trouble.

3.They publish a lot of photographs.

4.They write a lot of celebrities and their secrets, scandals and private life.

5.They publish horoscopes.

6.More people buy them.

7.They use intriguing headlines.

8.They have a weather forecast.

Where will you look for this information?

Use the expressions:

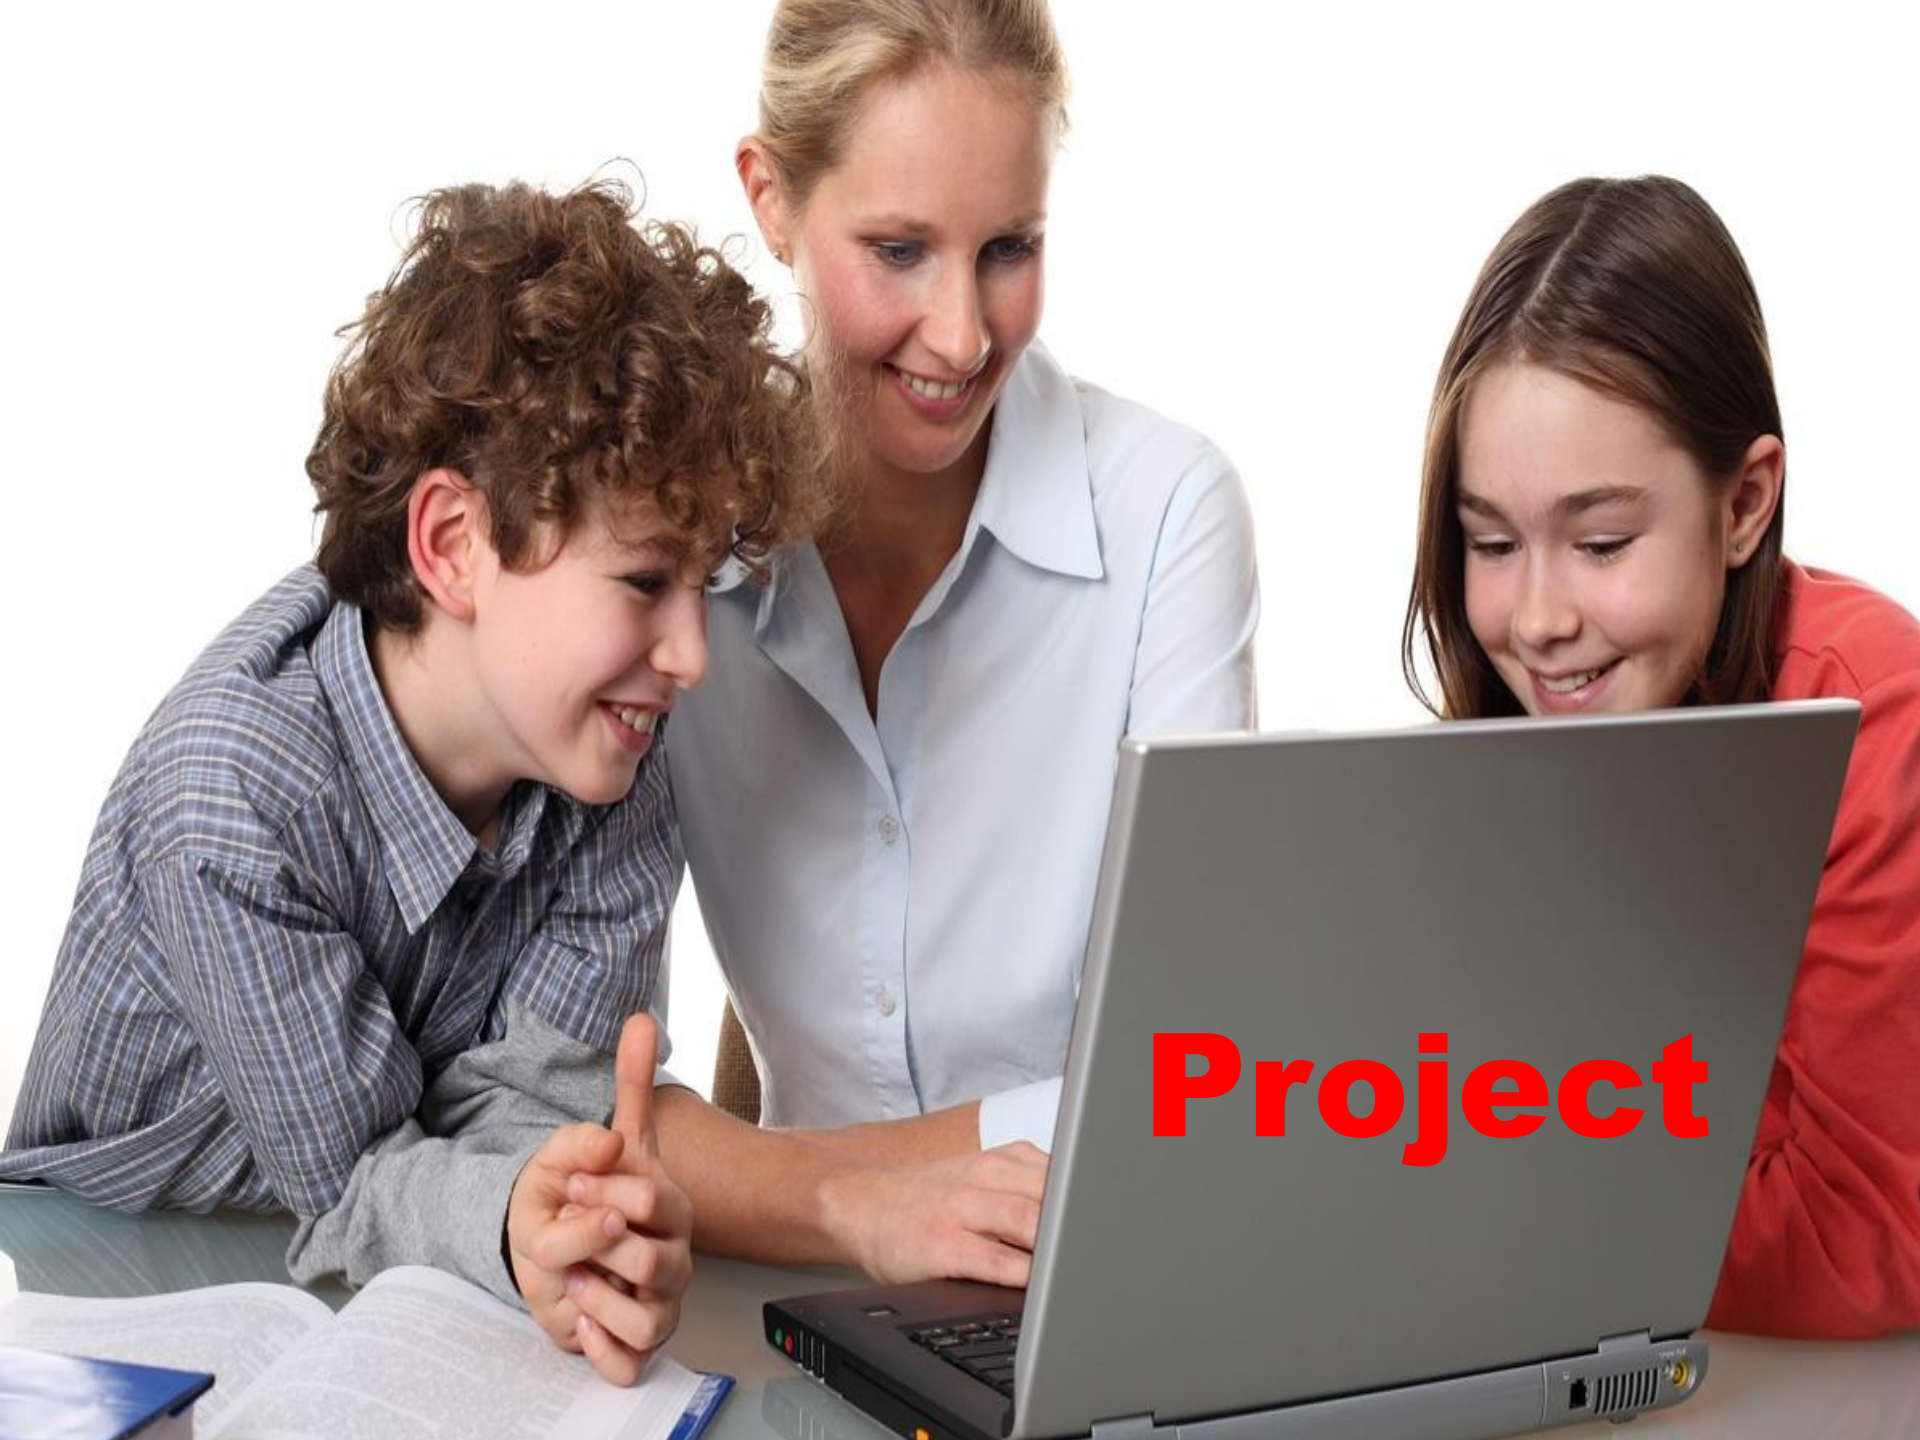

- If I need information about...,
I look for it in the ...(tabloids,
broadsheets),
because they write a lot about...

PROBLEM: IS IT REAL TO FIND CERTAIN INFORMATION IN BRITISH PRESS?

- 1.Sort the newspapers according their format (broadsheets or tabloids).
- 2.Read the headlines.
- 3.Look the photos.
- 4.Read some articles more attentively.

HOW TO SOLVE A PROBLEM ?

- Step 1. Finding information.
- Step 2. Comparing and analysing information.
- Step 3. Defending your position.
- Step 4. Making conclusions.
- Step 5. Using practical knowledge.

Project

HOW DO YOU LIKE THE LESSON?

Now I know

| What is a broadsheet | What is a tabloid | How to find information | How to solve a problem | How to express my opinion |
|-------------------------|----------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------------|
| | | | | |

Mark by plus+ or minus -

HOMEWORK:

Prepare a talk about any Russian newspaper.

Ex.B, p.110.