We will begin our tour with the newest, beautiful and modern district of our city, It's 130 quarter. It includes a few cafes, restaurants, shops, museums, monuments.

Newlyweds love this place, it's very romantic and beautiful. In the middle of the area there is the big heart of red flowers.

This area reminds the old Europe streets, there are many flowers near some houses. in the summer it's wonderful to walk with favorite friends here.

In our city there is little corner of London. It's small square near dentistry, there is copy of Big Ben.

The oldest sight of Irkutsk is iceboat on the river Angara. In the summer people ride catamarans and in the winter people ice-skate along the river.
