

Las Vegas (Nev.) - A city in the south-western part of the United States and the largest city in the state of Nevada (Nevada). Las Vegas is an internationally recognized center for entertainment and recreation, it is an unofficial capital of the world of gambling

The panorama of the city

Gambling was officially allowed in May 19, 1931

Revenue from hotels (including most of the world's largest), gambling, entertainment, and

The Strip

is a main street in Las Vegas

McCarron International Airport

Real silhouettes of the Statue of Liberty, the Eiffel Tower

Fremont Street Experience

Most of the major casinos are concentrated in the center of the pedestrian zone - Fremont Street Experience

Glitter Gulch

Glitter Gulch is a world famous area of night clubs

Fremont Street

Fremont Street is a heart of Las Vegas. Everything here has its initial experience

Dancing Fountains Bellagio are estimated at $ 40 million

Hotel

Volcano

Volcano erupts fire and lava flows every 15 minutes

You can also get married in L.V.
The wedding ceremonies are fast and cheap

the Grand Canyon

The Death Valley

... is famous for its moving stones

Zion National Park

