

Let's begin our new lesson!

16, April

Good afternoon, children!

I am very glad to see you and I hope that everyone will be happy

So our theme is:

“We are different, but we are all the same.”

We must:

- ▶ Learn some new words
 - ▶ Use at our speech
 - ▶ Make sentences

Check up!!!

1. Kind
2. Crying
3. Happy
4. Sad
5. Shouting
6. Angry
7. Dreaming
8. Curious
9. Thinking

We cry when we're happy

We cry when we're sad

Now doesn't that make you oh so mad?

*Now it's all Angry and sad
That's all there is That's all there ever is*

Love is a pink and purple in colour*

It tastes like Cadbury chocolate

It smells like a freshly baked cake

It sounds like baby talk

But Love isn't always what it's cracked up to be

Love is blood red*

Happy is golden.

Happy tastes like chocolate cake.

It has the scent of cookies that are baking.

Happy is like having someone tell you

They're taking you to Dream world.

It sounds like someone saying,

"I've got a present for you".

Happy is heavenly!

“I think that positive / negative emotions are...”

Today is the first day

Now we will finish our lesson
