- The background of the slide is a collage of various classical music-related images. It includes several portraits of composers and musicians, such as Ludwig van Beethoven, Johann Sebastian Bach, and others, rendered in a soft, faded style. There are also depictions of musical instruments, like a violin and a piano, and some abstract musical motifs. The overall aesthetic is artistic and educational, fitting for a presentation about music education goals.

Ballet "Swan Lake"

Sergei Vasilievich Rachmaninoff

Sergei Rachmaninoff was a Russian-American composer, pianist, and conductor.

He was one of the finest pianists of his day and, as a composer, the last great representative of Russian late Romanticism in classical music.

Sergei Vasilievich Rachmaninoff

Early influences of Tchaikovsky, Rimsky-Korsakov and other Russian composers gave way to a lyricism, expressive breadth and a tonal palette of rich orchestral colors.

- The 1917 Russian Revolution meant the end of Russia as the composer had known it.
- He emigrated to the USA.
- He was a popular figure in America.

- Rachmaninoff wrote five works for piano and orchestra—four Concertos plus the Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini. Of the concertos, the Second and Third are the most popular.
- He also wrote three symphonies.
- Rachmaninoff became famous around the world for his piano performances
