Halloween is celebrated on October 31.

In the USA children wear costumes and masks and go trick-or-treating.

Children dress in costumes and masks and go from door to door saying "trick or treat".

The neighbours give children such treats as candy, fruit and pennies.
So that children do not play tricks on them...

Many of them carve jack-o'-lanterns out of pumpkins. Most jack-o'-lanterns contain a candle inside. They tell stories about ghosts and witches

An Irish legend says that jack-o'-lanterns are named after the man called Jack. He could not enter heaven because he was a miser, and he could not enter hell because he had played jokes on devil.

Black cat

I am black as night.

I am sly as a fox.

I am pretty as Dracula.

I am happy as a pig in mud.

I shall bring you troubles.

A witch with long black hair and a pointed hat is flying on a broomstick. She is silhouetted against a large, bright full moon. In the background, there is a dark castle with several towers and spires. In the foreground, there are green bushes and several lit torches on poles. The overall scene is dark and spooky, typical of a Halloween theme.

Witch

I am a beautiful woman, aren't I? My beautiful nose is long. My small eyes are wicked. My lips are almost blue.

Am I pretty? Am I pretty?

I have rash and spots on my skin. I like when children cry and scream!
