

Present Perfect Continuous

Present Perfect Continuous:

описание длительного действия,
которое началось в прошлом и
все еще продолжается или только
что закончилось.

На русский язык в большинстве
случаев переводится глаголом в
настоящем времени.

Образование:

Have

has

+ been + Ving

We have been learning English for six month.

Мы учим английский шесть месяцев.

How long has Ann been waiting for?

Сколько времени ждет Анна?

- For — в течение
- Since — с, с тех пор как
- All day (all my life,...) — весь день (всю жизнь, ...)
- Recently - недавно
- Lately — в последнее время
- For a long time - долго

1. Утвердительное предложение

Jeff and Emily have been playing tennis for two hours. — Джеф и Эмили играют в теннис в течение двух часов.

2. Отрицательное предложение

Jeff and Emily haven't been playing golf for three hours.

3. Общий вопрос

Has Jeff been playing tennis for two hours? — Yes, he has.*

4. Альтернативный вопрос

Has Emily been playing tennis for two or for three hours? — Emily has been playing tennis for two hours.*

5. Вопрос к подлежащему

Who has been playing tennis for two hours? — Jeff and Emily have.*

6. Специальный вопрос

How long have Jeff and Emily been playing tennis? — They have been playing tennis for two hours.*

7. Разделительный вопрос

Jeff and Emily have been playing tennis for four hours, haven't they? — Yes, they have.

Present Perfect Progressive не употребляется:

1) с глаголами, обозначающими состояние.

to love — любить

to remember — помнить

to understand — понимать

to see — видеть

to hear — слышать

to hate — ненавидеть

to like — нравиться

to believe — верить

to want — хотеть

to know — знать

to forget — забыть

to need — нуждаться

to be — быть

to have — иметь

Вместо Present Perfect Progressive эти глаголы употребляются в Present Perfect. Например:

I have known my best friend since we were children. — Я знаю своего лучшего друга с тех пор, как мы были детьми.

Раскрой скобки, используя Present Perfect Progressive:

- I (to look) for my book for an hour.
- They (to quarrel) for such a long time.
- How long they (to practice) today?
- It's (to rain) all day.
- He (not/to feel) well lately.
- She (to live) here since childhood.
- We (to drive) for about two hours.

Исправь ошибки:

- We to have been learning Spanish for six days.
- Peter have been running the company for ten years.
- You've making good progress in your English lately.
- I've been have a lot of trouble with this equipment.
- We has make some changes in the project.
- They has been trying to settle the matter by ourselves.
- Mary have to look for some exhibition grounds since last month.
- Have been John using your car?

Vera did athletics last year.

Vera has been doing athletics since last year.

1. My sister used this shampoo two years ago.
2. He often skipped breakfast when he was a student.
3. My aunt ate much chocolate in her childhood.
4. Nick cleaned his teeth with a new toothpaste yesterday.
5. I prepared for the English exam last week.
6. They went to the swimming pool last month.

Раскрой скобки, используя Present Perfect Progressive:

1. My grandfather (to work) in the garden since he retired.
2. I (to use) this cream since I discovered it.
3. She (to sell) fruit and vegetables for five years.
4. The factory (to produce) these trainers for two years.
5. My mum (to eat) low-calorie foods for six months.
6. My sister (to do) aerobics since last year.
7. I (not to eat) a fried meal since I began to follow a diet.
8. Mary (to use) this toothpaste for a long time.
9. His grandmother (not to smoke) since he visited his heart doctor.
10. She (not to drink) strong tea for many years.