Do you recognize these quotes?

- Cowards die many times before their deaths; the valiant never taste death but once.
- Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player that struts and frets his hour upon the stage and then is heard no more.
- All the world's a stage, and the men and women merely players; they have their exits and their entrances.

- What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any name would smell as sweet.
- There is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so.
