

Ukraine in the Eurovision Song Contest

The Eurovision Song Contest - is an annual song competition held among the member countries of the European Broadcasting Union (EBU) since 1956.

Each member country submits a song to be performed on live television and radio and then casts votes for the other countries' songs to determine the most popular song in the competition. The contest has been broadcast every year since its inauguration in 1956 and is one of the longest-running television programmes in the world.

Ukraine has participated in the Eurovision Song Contest twelve times, debuting in 2003 with a 14-th place finish for Oleksandr Ponomaryov(he sang a song «Hasta la Vista»).

Ruslana Lyzhychko

She won the 2004 Eurovision Song Contest with the song «Wild Dances» receiving 280 points, which at that time was a record of points. Following her victory, she rose to fame in Europe and became one of the biggest pop stars from the Eastern part of the continent.
