

WELCOME TO LONDON ZOO

London Zoo is one of the most famous of all London attractions. It is situated in Regent's Park and was opened in 1828 by the Zoological Society of London

This is the oldest zoo and we can see it on the map

A lot of tourists come to the Zoo. The Zoo is open every day from 9 o'clock in the morning till 7 o'clock in the evening.

Visitors can find out facts about the animals, including where they live, what they eat and if they are endangered in the wild

There are a lot of unusual statues at the Zoo

The Zoo is the best place for rest and fun.

Such a strange horse we can see there!

The girl seems not to be afraid of them

There are about 750 kinds of different animals at the Zoo

Zebra is strong and beautiful

The penguins are fond of swimming in a hot day

This small penguin is rather curious

The reptiles are beautiful, aren't they?

This is Regent's canal

You can have a trip

There is a big aquarium at the Zoo with a lot of beautiful fishes

The polar bear is a good swimmer

And this one is a bit tired and he is going to rest a little

The lion's family: a father and a mother. They are strong and clever. And their baby is small and friendly .

The mother would like to sleep... but the little lions wouldn't like to...

The baby lions are so pretty and funny.
They look like big kittens

Big cats are so lovely! It's interesting to watch them.

The hippo is too small...

The giraffes live in their own house.
They can walk, eat and watch the people who come to watch them

London Zoo has almost 750 species of animals, from the smallest monkey to the tall giraffe. Over 12,000 animals live in the Zoo today, many of them are rare and endangered.

The koala and the owl are so funny

The funniest animals at London Zoo are monkeys. They jump, run and play with each other. They are not afraid of people and can come very close to them.

These animals are endangered
The giant panda

The black rhino

The African elephants

The white tiger is endangered too

Thank you for your attention

- COME TO LONDON ZOO AGAIN !
