Italy

National Emblem

The emblem comprises a white five-pointed star, with a fine red border, superimposed upon a five-spoked cogwheel, standing between an olive branch to the dexter side and an oak branch to the sinister side; the green branches are in turn bound together by a red ribbon bearing the inscription REPVBBLICA ITALIANA in white capital letters.

The flag of Italy

A religious interpretation is that the green represents hope, the white represents faith and the red represents charity.

Conclusion

- ❖ All people must have a rest in holidays. They mustn't only work and work every day. If you have a rest you don't only relax, but learn many new things for yourself.
- ❖ And you can meet new friends, listen to music and feel good.
