Do you know what a Death Valley is?

Going to Death Valley once meant danger and even death. It's the hottest place in the USA and summer temperatures there can reach 54 degrees ! Today it's a national park and thousands of people drive there to enjoy the beauty of this strange land.

There are lots of ghost towns in Death Valley. In the 1800s people streamed to Death Valley looking for gold and silver. The terrible heat combined with hard work made people leave the towns.

Today, you can visit there eerie ghost towns and look inside old houses, prisons and banks to see how people lived back then.

The background is a light blue textured surface. It is decorated with various musical elements: several orange musical notes of different sizes, some with stems, and a pair of orange headphones in the bottom left corner. There are also numerous thin, flowing lines in shades of orange, yellow, and green, some ending in small circles, creating a sense of movement and energy.

Task 5.
