- A vibrant, stylized illustration of a spring landscape. The top half features a bright blue sky with soft, white, puffy clouds. In the foreground, there's a lush green field with several white daisies with yellow centers. A blue butterfly is perched on one of the flowers. To the right, there's a tall, thin plant with yellow, feathery seed heads. The bottom of the image is decorated with a series of flowing, wavy lines in shades of blue and green, suggesting a path or a stream. The overall style is cheerful and cartoonish.
