Biography

Andreas was born on May 11, 1984, in Fuentealbilye, Spain — the outstanding Spanish football player, the captain and the halfback of Barcelona club. Vice-captain of Spanish national team. One of the most titled players in the history of world soccer. It is considered the strongest halfback of the present.

Beginning of the career in FC Barcelona

The Spanish scouts of "Barcelona" noticed the twelve-year-old boy Andres Iñesta in Albacete club from the city of the same name. Soon he moved to Catalonia and began the ascension to the first team of Barcelona. Iñesta debuted in the main structure of "Barcelona" on October 29, 2002 in the Champions League match against "Bruges". In a season 2003/04 Iñesta played already 11 matches and scored 1 goal in the championship of Spain, generally changing the main star of club, Ronaldinho. In that season "Barcelona" took the second place in the championship.

Beginning of the career in Spanish national team

The international performances of Iniesta began in 2001 when he helped Spain to win the European championship till 16 years, and next year participated in the European championship till 19 years. In 2003 it was as a part of a Spanish team which reached the World Cup final till 20 years in the United Arab Emirates, and entered the symbolical national team of a tournament. Several times Iniesta brought youth team of Spain (till 21 year) to matches as the captain.

Beginning of the career in Spanish national team

For a national team of Spain Inyesta debuted on May 15, 2006 in a friendly match with Russian national team. He scored the first goal for Inyest's national team on February 7, 2007 in a friendly match against combined Anglii. 11 of July in the World Cup of Inyest hammered only (and victorious) a goal in the final against the national team of the Netherlands on the 116th minute. Having scored a goal, the Spaniard took off a t-shirt and showed to the world an undershirt with an inscription "Dani Jarque: siempre con nosotros" (that in translation from Spanish: "Dani Harke: always with us"). Khark — the captain of Catalan club "Espanyol" — died from heart attack in August, 2009 at the age of 26 years. Spaniards won the first title of world champions.

Andres after a match told:
"I am simply happy, happy that the team won the championship, and is very happy that I scored a victorious goal. I think, our team deserved the World Cup."

A Spanish football player, likely Andrés Iniesta, is shown from the chest up, wearing a red Spain national team jersey with the Adidas logo and the Spanish crest. He is smiling broadly and holding the FIFA World Cup trophy high above his head with both hands. The background is a dark stadium at night, filled with spectators and bright floodlights that create a bokeh effect. A camera on a tripod is visible in the upper right corner.
