Edinburgh is known as Athens of the North

*Edinburgh
is an ancient city.
It is very cold but
attractive,
very proud
but friendly
and has a*

If you walk around Edinburgh
you can touch on history at every step. Practically every building has a tale to tell

The two most interesting parts of the city are the Old Town and the New Town

The Old Town lies between the Castle and Holyrood Palace.

*The Castle, in fact,
is older than the city.*

*No one can say
exactly when the first settlers came to live on the huge rock that stands high above
Edinburgh*

Later they built here a castle that used to be a fortress and a royal palace

It looks good in any weather but at night when it is floodlit it looks just like a castle in a fairy tale

The Edinburgh military tattoo takes place every August and September and is known throughout the world

A line of streets, which runs from the Castle to Holyrood House is called the Royal Mile

Holyrood House is a big royal palace which is the residence of the Queen when she is in Edinburgh

The most picturesque part of the Royal Mile is the Cannongate, which gives a good idea of what the Old Town was like

*The
monument to a dog called Bobby*

*The monument to a dog is one of the most modest and yet
one of the best known monuments in Edinburgh.*

*The dog belonged to John Grey. When he died Bobby lived
near his grave for
twenty-six years.
Later Bobby was buried near his master and the*

The Old Town is a striking contrast to the New Town with its white and beautiful streets lined with trees.

Princes Street is the most beautiful street of the New Town.

It has a lot of gardens on one side and it is also Edinburgh's popular shopping centre

*Princes Street is connected with the name of the famous
writer Sir Walter Scott.*

*A monument 200
feet high rises between green trees. They call it a poem of stone.*

*It is the Scott Monument. Inside it
there is a marble
statue of writer, and
of his favourite dog*
