

The background of the image is a wooden surface. In the top left, there is a watercolor palette with various colors including green, purple, red, and yellow. In the top right, another watercolor palette is visible, showing colors like green, blue, red, and black. A small piece of paper with a watercolor wash of pink and orange is placed between the two palettes. On the left side, three brushes are laid out: two thin brushes and one fan brush. On the right side, three more brushes are laid out: two thin brushes and one fan brush. In the center, a large white rectangular piece of paper serves as a background for the text.
