A low-angle shot of a person's legs walking across a cobblestone street. The person is wearing dark blue jeans and dark blue sneakers with white laces and white soles. They are stepping over a rectangular, rusted metal plaque embedded in the pavement. The plaque has the words "BERLINER MAUER 1961-1989" raised in a sans-serif font. The cobblestones are grey and irregularly shaped. A few dry, brown leaves are scattered on the ground. The background is a dark, out-of-focus wall.
