

ТРЕНИРОВКА ПАЛЬЧИКОВ МАТЕМАТИКА

A handwriting practice grid on graph paper. The grid is 12 columns wide and 15 rows high. The first row contains a large red-bordered box with a red arrow pointing up and to the right, a black arrow pointing down and to the right, and a small illustration of a hand with fingers curled. To the right of this box are two rows of small black arrows pointing up and to the right, with two arrows per column. The second row contains a series of dots: a black dot, a red dot, and then a black dot in each of the remaining 10 columns. The third row contains a series of small black arrows pointing up and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The fourth row contains a series of dots: a black dot, a red dot, and then a black dot in each of the remaining 10 columns. The fifth row contains a series of small black arrows pointing up and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The sixth row contains a series of small black arrows pointing down and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The seventh row contains a series of small black arrows pointing down and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The eighth row contains a series of small black arrows pointing up and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The ninth row contains a series of small black arrows pointing up and to the right, with one arrow in each of the 12 columns. The tenth row contains a series of dots: a black dot, a red dot, and then a black dot in each of the remaining 10 columns.
