A painting of a winter landscape. In the foreground, a river flows, its surface reflecting the sky and the surrounding trees. The water is rendered with soft, blended brushstrokes in shades of blue, green, and brown. On the left bank, a wooden bridge with a railing spans across the river. The background is filled with tall, slender trees, their branches bare and reaching towards a pale, hazy sky. The overall color palette is muted and atmospheric, with a focus on natural tones and soft lighting. The text is overlaid on the left side of the painting.

A landscape photograph showing a flooded area. In the foreground, there is a patch of snow and ice. The middle ground is dominated by a large body of water, possibly a flooded field or a reservoir, which reflects the sky and the surrounding trees. The background shows a line of trees and a distant horizon under a clear sky. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.
