

A photograph of a memorial to an unknown soldier. In the center, a dark metal helmet with a star emblem sits atop a casket-like structure covered in a dark, draped fabric with tassels. To the right, a small bouquet of red and white flowers is placed on a dark rectangular pedestal. In the foreground, a large, dark, five-pointed star is set into the ground, with a bright flame burning from its center. The background is a red brick wall. The text "День неизвестного солдата" is overlaid in large red letters across the middle of the image.
