

A photograph of a memorial to the Heroes of the Patriotic War. The memorial features a large, dark, draped metal structure with a fringed edge, set against a red brick wall. A bronze helmet with a star is placed on the right side of the drape. In the foreground, a large, bright yellow flame rises from a central point on a dark, triangular base. The base is surrounded by a wreath of red and white flowers and a black and yellow striped ribbon. The text "ВЕЛИКАЯ ОТЕЧЕСТВЕННАЯ ВОЙНА" is overlaid in large, bold, red and yellow letters on the right side of the image.
