

КАК ВЕСТИ СЕБЯ ПРИ ВСТРЕЧИ С ОПАСНЫМИ ЖИВОТНЫМИ

Медведь и лось

A brown bear is walking from left to right across a gravelly path. The bear has thick brown fur and is looking down. The background is a blurred natural setting with green grass and a hazy mountain range.

Как вести себя при встрече с медведем

Прежде надо не попадать в такие
ситуации когда вы встречаетесь с медведем

Если вы его видите а он вас нет.

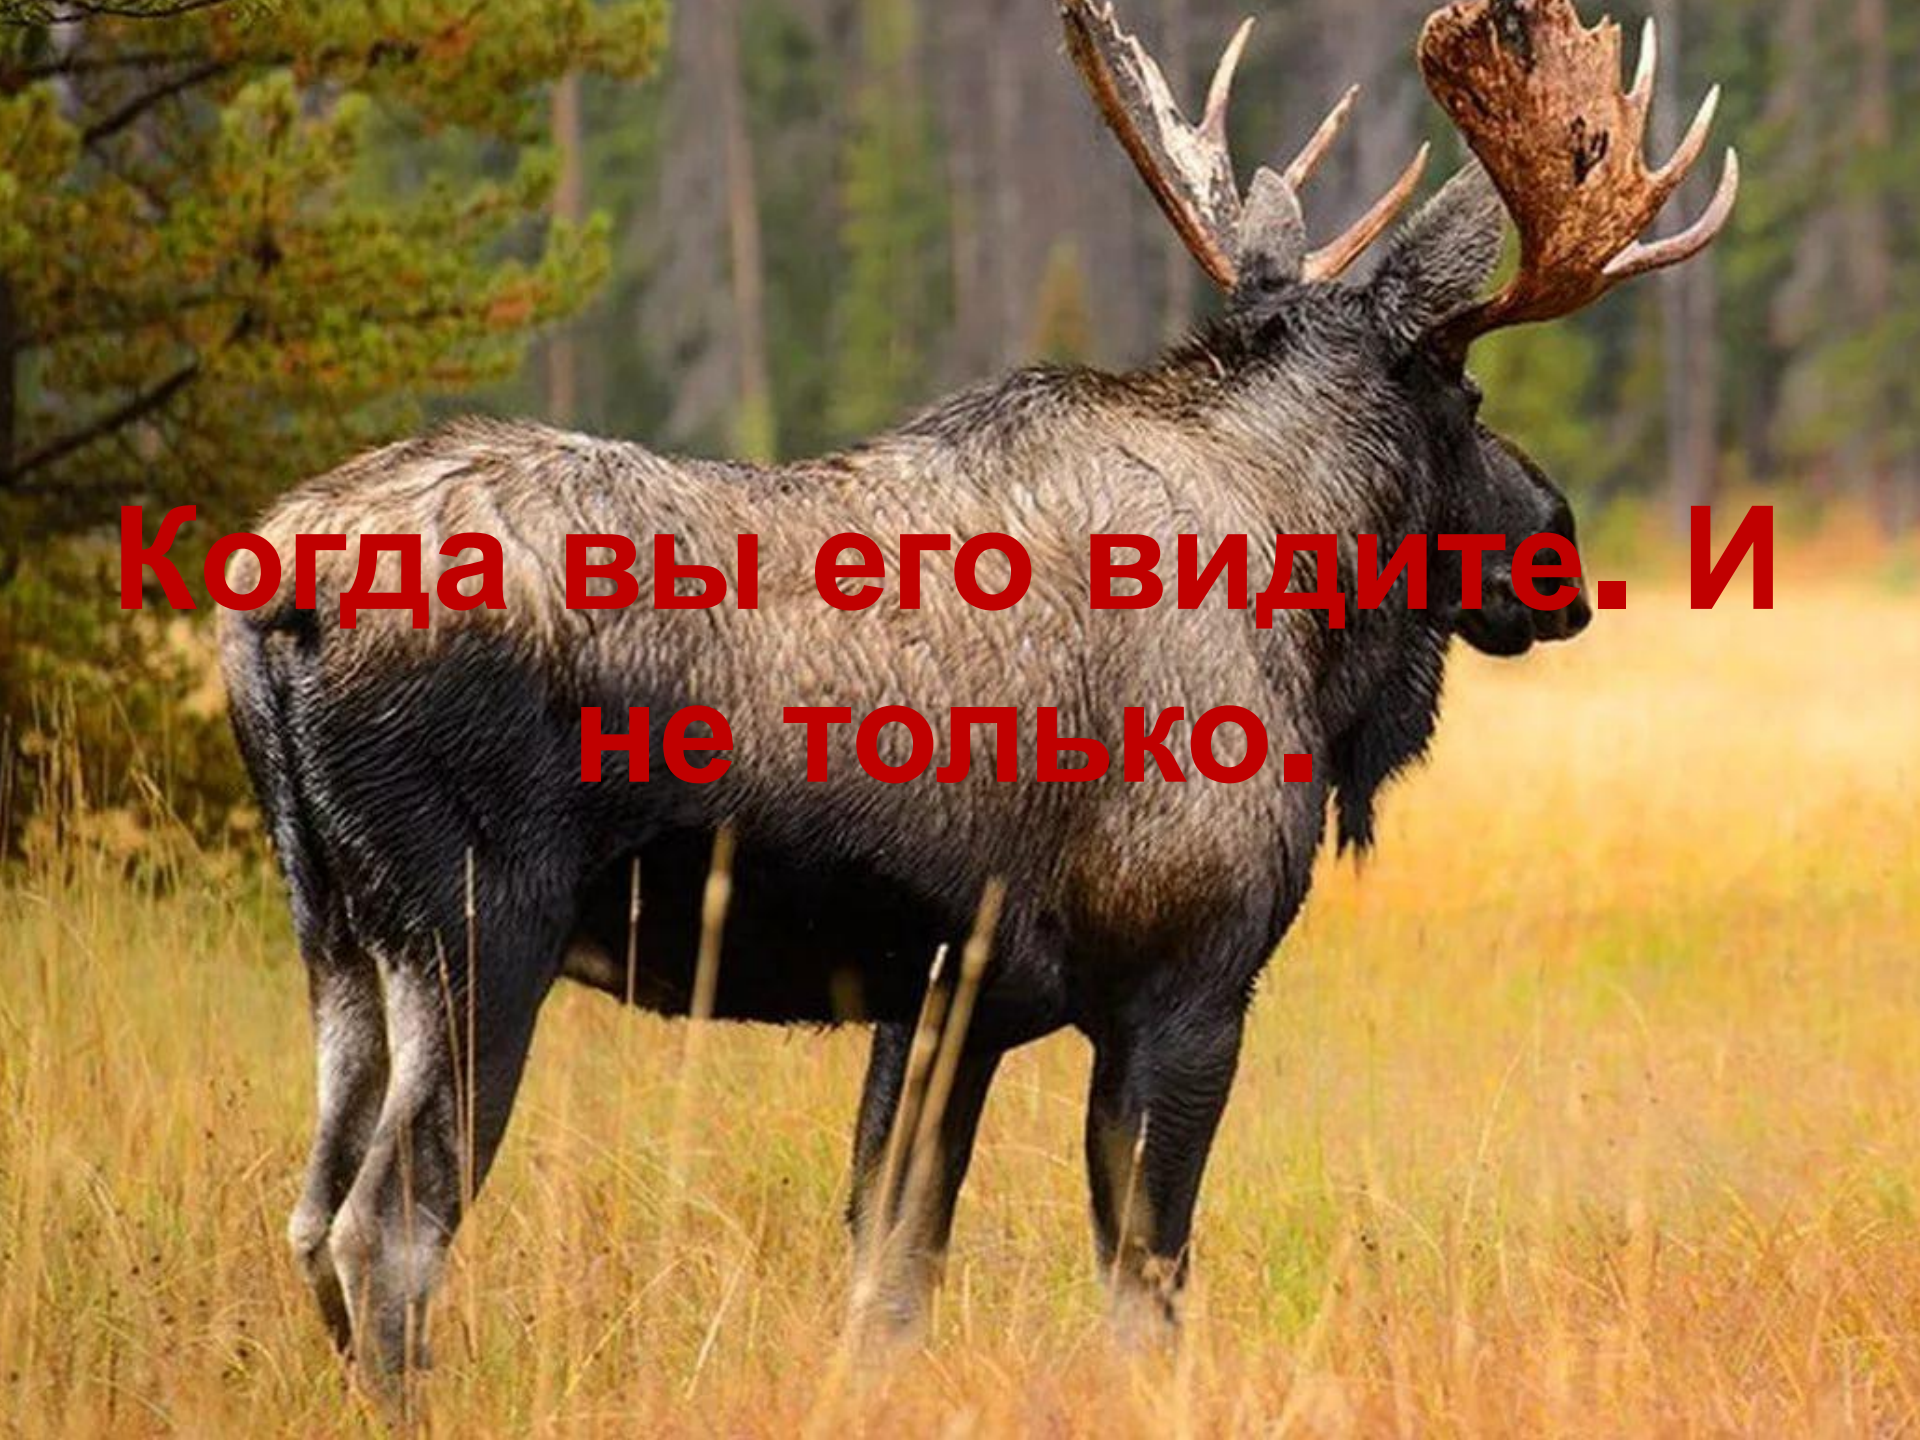

A young brown bear cub is standing in a grassy field, looking towards the right. The cub has dark brown fur and a lighter brown face. The background is a blurred green field with some brown patches.

Помните самая большая опасность это детёныши зверей.

A large moose with massive, palmated antlers stands in shallow water, facing right. The moose has dark brown fur and its legs are partially submerged. The background is a blurred landscape of dry grass and trees. Overlaid on the image is red text in Russian.

Как вести себя при встрече с лосём в осенью (во время гона).

A large moose with impressive antlers stands in a field of tall yellow grass. The moose is facing right, and its antlers are a mix of brown and white. The background is a blurred forest of green trees.

Когда вы его видите. И не только.
