Two identical dolls of a young girl are standing side-by-side. They have yellow faces, large green eyes, and a wide red smile showing two small white teeth. They have short, blonde, fringed hair. They are wearing red headscarves with a bow at the front. Their dresses are red with white long sleeves. They have yellow hands and feet. The dolls are positioned against a white, vertically-pleated fabric background. The floor is a light green surface.
