A 16-pointed star is centered on a white background. The star is composed of 16 triangular paper pieces, alternating between red and yellow. The triangles are arranged in a pinwheel pattern, with each red triangle pointing towards the center and each yellow triangle pointing away from the center. The star has a total of 16 points, with 8 red points and 8 yellow points. The text 'Elena.ost' is written in a stylized, italicized font across the center of the star.
