

Buckingham Palace

is the official London residence and principal workplace of the British monarch.

It is a setting for state occasions and royal hospitality.

It is in the centre of London

It was built in 1703

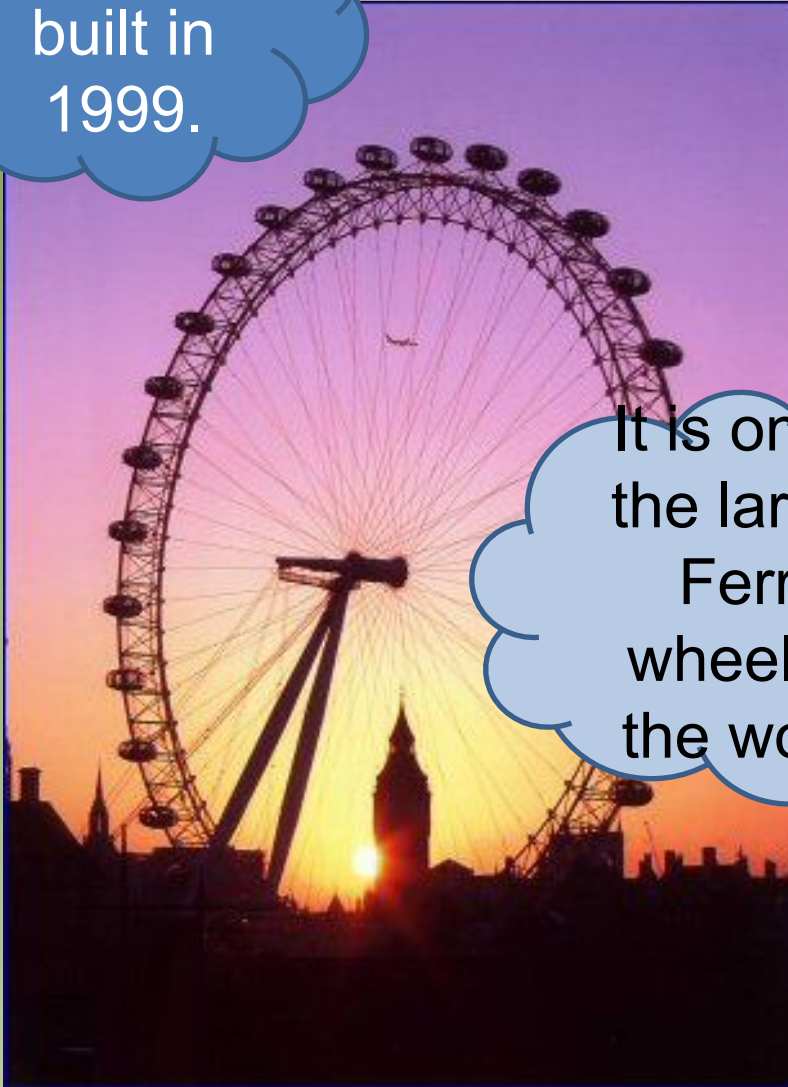

The London Eye

It was built in 1999.

It is a popular tourist destinati on.

It is one of the largest Ferris wheels in the world.

St Paul's Cathedral

is an Anglican church in Central London, England.

It was started in 604.

It is a popular tourist attraction and is still used as a church today.

Tower of London

It was a prison, and a place of execution.

is an ancient stone fortress in London

It stands on the bank of the River Thames, in the oldest part of the city.

Now there is a big collection of jewels and a museum of armour.

Tower Bridge

It crosses the River Thames near the Tower of London.

Trafalgar Square

is a large pedestrian square in the heart of London.

Westminster Abbey

is a large and famous Anglican church in Westminster,
London.

Palace of Westminster

It is also known as the Houses of Parliament or Westminster Palace.

is a wax museum in London with branches in a number of major cities.

number of major cities.

A full-length portrait of a wax figure of a woman, likely a historical figure, dressed in a dark, high-collared dress and a bonnet. She is standing next to a bust of a man. A framed document is visible on the wall behind the woman. The background is a purple wall with text that is partially obscured.

British Museum

is a museum in London dedicated to human history and culture.

Its collection, numbers 8 million works and is among the largest