

Compare two cities that are famous tourists
Istambul (Turkey) and Rome (Italy)

Istambul(Turkey) and Rome(Italy)

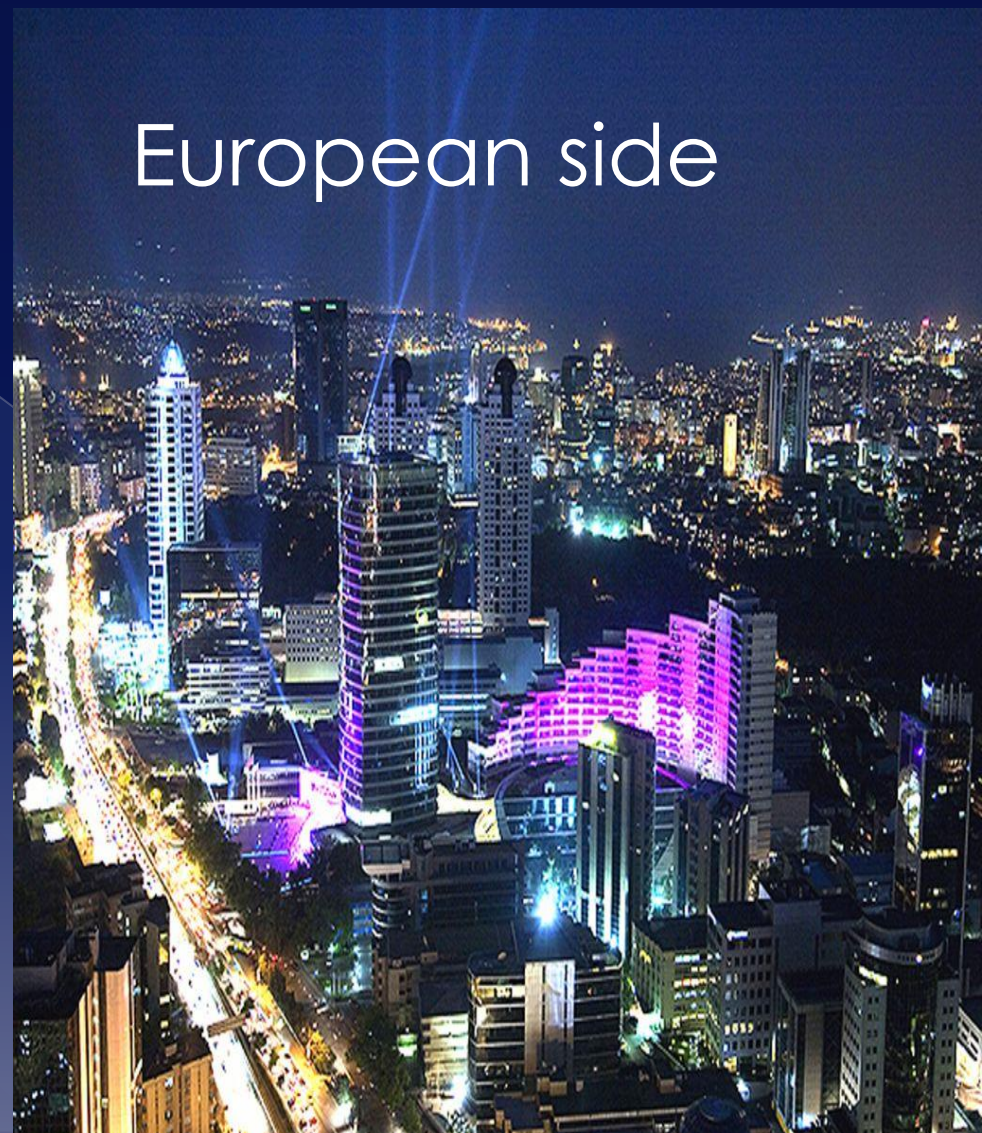

shogun-club.ru

Divided by the river Bosphorus

Two sides of Istanbul

European side

A close-up photograph of a variety of Turkish pastries displayed on a table. In the foreground, there are stacks of simit (ring-shaped bread) and kadayif (fried dough) pastries. A yellow price tag is visible among the pastries. The table is covered with a colorful, patterned cloth.

Weather and Places

The biggest bazaar
in the world

Aya Sofya and Palace of SultanAhmet

Best of ROME ITALY

Colosseum

Trevi Fountain

Weather

THANK YOU