Modern working environment

- However new environment comforts elders, but to a certain limit, yet it's the old that do the trick.

Literature preferences

- A glimpse at ones library can prove to be a sound trick in understanding a person.

Medical treatment

- There's no denying a significance of ones health, especially for people in age.

Conclusion

- For fear the attention might slip of their work, some effort is to be put in knowing a person inside out.

Thank you for your attention!!!
