

HOLIDAY OF A LIFETIME

- ▣ We met at the first time in the summer in London. I was a tourist, it is a very beautiful city, but once I was lost, I could only remember the name of my hotel, I was standing near the subway and suddenly I saw a young lady. I approached to her and asked her to help me. She smiled and got me into the hotel.

- On the way we talked about everything, she was smiling all the time, she's so pretty. I was very grateful for her help I got her phone number and asked her about the meeting. She agreed, I asked her where we will meet, she laughed and said I'll come for you, because you may be lose again.

▣ On the following day we walked all day, we were in the park

- I remember that moment when it started rain and we enjoyed in the rain. It was beautiful. I immediately fell in love with her. For three weeks, she showed me the whole city and this time was the best in my life.

• But I must come at home, she asked me to stay with her, I wanted to stay with her too, but at home my parents were waiting me. I promised to her that I will be back soon and I will write letters every day. She cried and hugged me, in this moment I didn't want to come back.

▣ When I was at home my family were greeted me, my mother, father and my brother, were very happy to see me. I was glad to see my family, but I was bored of the girl and all my thoughts were only of her. I wrote letters to her every day and every day I dreaming to meet her.

- And one day I went to see her. I met her at the same subway where we met at the first time. She always came home from the work on the subway and after work she saw me, I was very happy to see her. I come to her and said “sorry can you help me, I'm lost” and she laughed.

After few years we married and we had three wonderful children, two boys and one girl.
