

Ivantso M.M

Rate: 1

Continent: Africa

Island of St. Helena

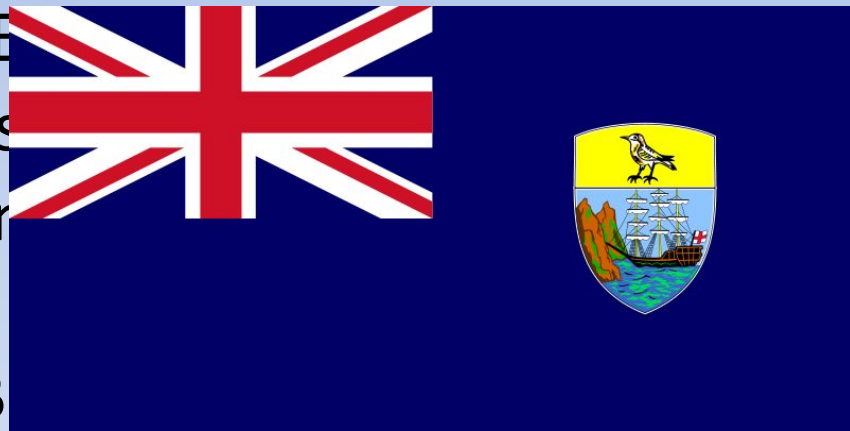

Capital: Jamestown

Largest city: Jamestown

Language: English (common language)

Population: 4255 thousand.

Currency: Pound Saint Helena.

- Cart

- Flag and Coat of arms

Erasmus
B
found in the branches network Bank of St. Helena. Visa and MasterCard are accepted in limited major stores

Transport system

- The length of highways is 200 km
- vessels «St. Helena»
- The distance from the capital to major cities is 40-80 km.
- Type of transport: roads on the island a bit. In St. Helena there are bus services can also be used Jeep. Transport on the islands are very few trains and airports there.
- You can order aviobility
- Scheduled Flights performs the vessels calling at the island 22 times a year. On the voyage from the coast of the UK is 14 days from Cape Town - 5 days.

accommodation

Hotel The Consulate

Hotel Quality Inn St. Helena - Beaufort South, The
Consulate, Farm House,
Wellington House, Bayside
Inn.

The cost of a room per night
on average 550-680 UNH

The attractiveness of the country

House Napoleon

- History of the island
- Holy Island. Helena was discovered by Portuguese navigator Juan da Nova while traveling home from India May 21, 1502 on St. Helena. In 1613 the Portuguese drowned here Dutch ship "VitteLiuv" with a cargo of gold and 1311diamond .V island of St. Helena in 1815 became a place of exile of Napoleon Bonaparte, who died there in 1821 at his home in Longwood.
- Attractive Places: Military Forts and Batteries island, Napoleon space, marine artifacts, House landowner (Plantation House), The waterfall in the form of heart, Jacob ladder.

Climate

- Although that area of the island in the tropics, its climate remains soft and smooth. Changing rainy morning can often be a bright sunny day.
- The four seasons are not recognized on the island of St. Helena, is no sudden changes of weather. Hottest months of January to March. The coldest period is from June to September.

TRADITIONS AND CUSTOMS

- St. Helena Day, 21st May, is a Public Holiday and is celebrated by all. It was on this day in 1502 that the Island was discovered and so-named as it was the birthday of Saint Helena, the mother of Constantine the Great. Celebrations on this day take many forms and are usually held at the one location so it is a good way of experiencing a taste of our culture all in the one day!
- There are also a variety of festivals. The Walking Festival is held biennially and consists of a week's programme of walks to suit every walker, whether you are a beginner or a seasoned hiker.
- The Festival of Running is also held in the same years as the Walking Festival and attracts many participants from overseas as well as locals. The Festival of Arts & Culture is also a biennial event and highlights St Helena's people and culture with a two-week programme of activities and events. See the events page for dates

Visa

- Saint Helena is a British overseas possessions. Citizens of Ukraine to enter into the area do not need to apply for the visa at embassies and consulates of the United Kingdom, but for their visits needed permission to enter (entry permit) from the local administration. For - Saint Helena, authorizes take shape on arrival.

Religion

- religion
- Christianity has deep roots in St. Helena and played a symbolic role in the community of the island, most of the people belonging to the Church of England, being members of the Diocese of St. Helena, which includes Ascension Island and which has its own bishop, who lives on the island of St. Helena.

Tourism

- Types of tourism on the island of St. Helena
- Cultural-cognitive;
- religious;
- (Green)
- adventure;
- youthful
- The cost of holidays around 45,000 USD.

