Прости ты мне батю
по-белому,
Я от белого овету
отвык...
