

WELCOME TO LONDON!

Лядова Евгения 5»Б» класс

I WILL TELL YOU ABOUT BIG BEN

Big Ben is part of a building of the London Parliament.

Really Big Ben is the name of the great bell on the clock, located in the Northern part of the Palace of Westminster in London, although the name is also often used to denote a watch or clock tower in General. This is part of the architectural complex of the Palace of Westminster.

WHAT YEAR WAS FOUNDED BIG BEN

- Big Ben (now the Tower Elizabeth), brought him back in 1859 and still it accurately measures the time.

WHY SHOULD YOU VISIT THE BIG BEN?

I think that stands for visiting London. London is very rich in museums, rich in parks and bridges. All Londoners are proud of your city.